

Job 33:13 (D. Hayhoe) 218243

Dorothy Conference: 2005, Gospel (33:13)

Gospel—D. Hayhoe

Before I make a couple of comments, I'd like to turn to the Book of Job, chapter 33. Job 33 verse 13. Why dost thou strive against him? For he giveth not account of any of his matters. Where God speaketh once, yet twice, if man perceiveth it not in a dream, in the vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed, then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction. That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man, he keepeth back his soul from the pit. His life from perishing by the sword. He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, the multitude of his bones with strong pain.
