

Nehemiah - Commentaries by Paul J. Pascoe

CareLines: Volume 3, Kindness (8:10)

DECEMBER 24

Send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared.

Nehemiah 8:10

God rewards kindness - even in little things. There are so many in the world (and Christians in other lands) who have nothing. Send them a portion. Our giving doesn't always have to be into the collection on Sunday mornings. We can set some aside so that we can provide something for those with whom we come in contact who have nothing.

CareLines: Volume 2, Worship (8:6)

NEH 8:6

And Ezra blessed the Lord. . . . And all the people . . . bowed their heads, and worshipped the Lord.

Neh. 8:6

What a happy state for God's people to be in - to bow and worship in response to a prayer of thanksgiving. How much we have to thank the Lord for, especially today as we meet around Him to remember what it cost Him to make us fit for heaven. Our hearts should fill up with thanksgiving and praise when we think about Calvary and the awful death of the cross. Jesus died there for you and me. Let's be thankful today as we remember Him in His death.

CareLines: Volume 3, Dedication (6:3)

NEH 6:3

I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

Neh. 6:3

Nehemiah was rebuilding the wall of Jerusalem when his enemies requested that he meet with them. He was so exercised about the great work going on that he refused to stop. He was dedicated. He was in earnest. Nothing would come between him and his work for the Lord. I wonder if we are that dedicated? There are so many attempts by Satan and his angels to stop the Lord's work. Don't be distracted, young believer. Continue on in the work that the Lord has given you to do and let nothing stop you until it's done.
