

Romans 8:28-30 (Ronald (Ron) Reeves) 54719

Christian Truth: Volume 32, Glorified (8:28-30)

The golden chain of blessing found in Rom. 8:28-30 shall not be broken. As sure as the believer's destiny is marked out in the counsels of God, so sure is the day when the believer shall be "glorified." What is it to be glorified? Glory is the excellence of Christ imparted to His own and in eternity to be in full display. (See John 17:22.) Every believer in that coming day shall be conformed to the image of the Son of God. The displayed excellence of Christ shall be upon him. This will be his glory forever by unspeakable grace! May that glory show forth in us in some measure while we patiently wait for that day soon to break.

clickbible.org