

Ruth - Commentaries by Paul J. Pascoe

CareLines: Volume 3, Grace (2:10)

MARCH 5

Why have I found grace in thine eyes . . . seeing I am a stranger?

Ruth 2:10

The reason that Boaz gave for showing grace to Ruth was that she had been kind to her mother-in-law and had cared for her when she needed help. Ruth's kindness was rewarded by the one who is a picture of Christ. The grace shown to us though is simply because the Lord wanted to. We didn't merit His favor. But His love is so great that He chose us. While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. This is wonderful and beyond our comprehension. Enjoy it!

GRACE marvelous GRACE!

CareLines: Volume 2, Dress (3:3)

RUT 3:3

Wash thyself therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee.

Ruth 3:3

Ruth was about to go to see the man who would one day choose her to be his wife. And so she got ready to be suitably perfumed and dressed when she met him. When we go to meet our Bridegroom, the Lord Jesus, we too should get ready. It shows a measure of respect to be suitably dressed. After the demons had been cast out of Legion he got dressed before he sat at the Lord's feet. Let's dress decently in the Lord's presence.
